	regularly scheduled time	Preemptions	Report
SA@4:00-4:30PM	7	6
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This series focuses on the development of three teens who are uniquely different from one another yet forge deep bonds of friendship through their shared interests and problems. As these three navigate their way through high school, they will deal with all the important issues of adolescence, modeling thier problem-solving and decision-making for the teen audience. The overarching goal of this series is to take the viewer from one level of knowledge to a more informed or higher level of knowledge within each episode. This is achieved through the storylines, where one or more of the three main characters will demonstrate active problem-solving and decision-making related to a specific topic. Each week, embedded in an evolving, continuous process of friendship and values clarification, a character will deal with a specific challenge. Topics will include, for example, racial identity, understanding and accepting loss, facing failure, effective communication, conflict management, personal responsibility, service to others, trust and betrayal, academic achievement, life balance, and tolerance.

SA@3:00-3:30PM	6	7
Length of Program: 30 (minutes)
Age of Target Child Audience: from 13 years to 16 years
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. The educational objective to this program is to demonstrate how the knowledge of one or more characters in the story moves from one level to a more informed or higher level of knowledge by the end of each episode. This change in knowledge conveys an educational message to the audience which may fall into one or more categories- intellectual-cognitive and/or socio-emotional. The message will always be integral to the plot and present throughout the script. This objective is achieved in this series by showing how a group of teens deals with gender equality, competition, cooperation, and balancing priorities.

7. Complete the following for each program that you plan to air for the next quarter that meets the definition of Core Programming. Complete chart below for each Core Program.

Title of Program #1: One World			Origination Network
Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
SA@9:30-10:00AM	12	30 (minutes)	from 13 to 16 (years)
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. The educational objective of this program is to demonstrate how the knowledge of one or more characters in the story moves from one level to a more informed or higher level of knowledge by the end of each episode. This change in knowledge conveys an educational message to the audience which may fall into one or more categories- intellectual-cognitive and/or socio-emotional. The message will always be integral to the plot and present throughout the script. The objective is achieved through this series by exploring socio-emotional themes of identity, self-worth, social reciprocity, service to others and acceptance of differences. Through the characters in the show, our audience will see examples of different approaches to resolving problems caused by these issues.

Title of Program #2: City Guys (B)			Origination Network

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
SA@4:00-4:30PM	13	30 (minutes)	from 13 to 16 (years)
Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This series focuses on the development of three teens who are uniquely different from one another yet forge deep bonds of friendship through their shared interests and problems. As these three navigate their way through high school, they will deal with all the important issues of adolescence, modeling thier problem-solving and decision-making for the teen audience. The overarching goal of this series is to take the viewer from one level of knowledge to a more informed or higher level of knowledge within each episode. This is achieved through the storylines, where one or more of the three main characters will demonstrate active problem-solving and decision-making related to a specific topic. Each week, embedded in an evolving, continuous process of friendship and values clarification, a character will deal with a specific challenge. Topics will include, for example, racial identity, understanding and accepting loss, facing failure, effective communication, conflict management, personal responsibility, service to others, trust and betrayal, academic achievement, life balance, and tolerance.

Days/Times Program Regularly Scheduled:	Total times to be aired	Length of Program	Age of Target Child Audience:
SA@3:30-4:00PM	9	30 (minutes)	from 13 to 16 (years)

Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming. This series focuses on the development of four teen girls who live and attend high school in Chicago. They come from very different family backgrounds, and have different strengths, but share a bond of friendship. Their different talents, perspectives, and family experiences become the platform for illustrating alternative approaches to understanding and solving problems. The overarching goal of the series is to model a learning experience for the audience, where the primary character goes from one state of knowledge to another higher state of knowledge by the end of the episode. Each week, embedded in the story narrative, a lesson is presented to the audience that relates specifically to teen concerns. Topics include inter-racial understanding, using compromise to avoid negative conflict, effective communication with parents, the hazards of risk-taking, saying "no" to peer pressure, and using logic to solve your problems.

KVBC is now doing a project called "The Scene". Every other week, one local student gets the chance to be a News 3 reports. The students team up with a photographer and a producer and are sent out on a story. The student's responsibility is to set up interviews, log, write, and track their story. "The Scene" airs every other Sunday on the News 3 Sunrise 6-7am show. So far, 3 students have been on "The Scene" and their ages range from 15-17 years old (high school freshman to seniors). "The Scene" began in February 2001.

KVBC as part of their community outreach also provides station studio tours to local youth groups. For the first quarter of 2001, KVBC conducted seventeen youth tours.

The More You Know Website, (www.nbc.com/tmyk) features actual video clips from the award-winning public service announcements, referral information for the organizations referenced in the PSA's, a general campaign overview, and educational materials produced in connection with the NBC programming. The site also includes a "feature of the month" page which addresses select TMYK topics, a list of the campaign's most recent accolades, and actionable video of the latest TMYK events.

To supplement and enhance the educational value of the network's "Teen NBC" programs, NBC has a web site (www.nbc.com/tNBC) specifically dedicated to teens. This site was recently re-launched with a new design. The goals of this site are first, to create a platform for the teen community where opportunities for self-expressions become the core of the interactive experience; second to build these communities wherever possible around the themes and ideas generated within the TNBC shows themselves; and third, to provide online resources of information and guidance around the issues that most effect teens' lives.

Features of the web site include information on the upcoming episodes of each of the TNBC shows, as well as information about the shows and their cast members. A free TNBC email service is provided for teens to foster community and communication. There is a prominent link to the Snap.com "Teen Zone" which includes polls, message boards and features on subjects such as relationships, family, advice columns, dating, drugs and alcohol, entertainment and other teen sites on the web. There are chat rooms for teens, hosted by Talk City, and there are links to web pages building and hosting services.

(It was necessary to reschedule and/or pre-empt certain shows this quarter due to conflicts with live network sports and NBC Inaguration Day 2001. In each instance of rescheduling, prior notice was given to viewers both over-the-air and through our local listing services.)

Dear Affiliate Partner:

To assist you in complying with the reporting requirements for children's television and the requirement that stations air "core" children's programming, we are providing you with episode-specific descriptions as set forth in the attached Community Relations Quarterly Children's Programming Report for 2nd quarter 2001. The report includes information to help prepare the Form 398. Please note that we have not included the specific dates and times for each of the programs as that may be station-specific.

This report is divided into the following categories:

- 1. Core programming: Regularly scheduled programming furnished by the NBC Network that is specifically designed to serve the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under. Each of these programs is identified on-air as educational and informational with the "E/I" icon, and is similarly identified to the national listing services. (Update: To assist stations with the preemption report section of the new FCC Form 398 we have added specific episode numbers).
- 2. Other programming: Programming furnished by the NBC Network that contributes to the educational and informational needs of children 16 and under, but is not specifically designed to meet the educational and informational needs of children.
- 3. Public service announcements targeted to children 16 and under.
- 4. Non-broadcast efforts that enhance the educational and informational value of NBC Network programming to children.
- 5. Network on-air promotional efforts which include a schedule of TNBC on-air promos.

The NBC Network did not broadcast any programming during the second quarter of 2001 that is subject to the commercial limits of the Children's Television Act.

If you have any questions about these reporting requirements, please feel free to call my office.

AT THE MOVIES (#63215)

Antonio and Christy get work-study jobs at the local movie theater for their business class. The manager is considering both Antonio and Christy for the assistant manager position. Christy comes up with the idea of a Midnight Movie that would show the Saved by the Bell "Wedding Special," and have Screech make a guest appearance. The manager loves the idea and makes Christy the new assistant manager. The next day, Antonio is late for work and Christy comes down on him. She doesn't want the other employees to think she is giving him special treatment because he is her boyfriend. Christy continues to boss Antonio around on the day of the Midnight Movie premiere. The tension is high between the two of them and Antonio quits after Christy says he made a stupid mistake when he forgot to pick up the t-shirts for the event. Antonio feels Christy is being too bossy. Christy is upset about Antonio quitting, and refuses to talk to him. Screech, Julie, and Mary Beth decide to make Antonio jealous to get Antonio and Christy back together. Later at the diner, the boys try to get Antonio to talk to Christy, but he refuses. Screech comes in and talks to Christy. From another table, Antonio watches as Screech gives Christy a massage. Antonio confronts Christy about Screech. This was just the catalyst they needed to begin talking things out. Antonio apologizes for not taking Christy seriously on the job. Christy apologizes for being too bossy. They decide to treat each other with more respect and talk about what is bothering them.

[Educational Theme: If you are in a position of authority over people you care about, be respectful and be sure not to treat them differently. Communicate your needs when problems arise.]

CHEAT HAPPENS (#63116)

In order to pass their chemistry final, Chris and Jamal make cheat sheets, but lose them on their way into the test. They take the test and figure they must have learned something while making the cheat sheets because they think they passed. However, Ms. Noble finds the cheat sheets, and accuses El-Train of cheating. When El-Train says he didn't cheat, Noble tells the class that she can't accept any of the tests because she doesn't know who cheated and she's going to make them all retake the test on Saturday. Unfortunately, the whole class believes that El-Train cheated and they are furious with him. At the test on Saturday, some of the boys in the class start a fight with El-Train and in order to keep their friend from getting into further trouble, Chris and Jamal admit to writing the cheat sheets. Ms. Noble gives Chris and Jamal an F on the tests and tells them that they will have to go to summer school, even though they didn't use the cheat sheets. The boys apologize to El-Train who accepts, but tells them that it will take some time before things are back to normal.

INCOMING (#101/ #63951)

The first day of school finds Dylan Roberts and his friend, Jermaine Greene, getting acquainted with a new girl, Ashley Gordon. All three have to quickly get their plans in order - Dylan has to bring up his grades, Ashley has to deal with her father's death, and Jermaine wants to make the soccer team. Andre Pena, the school counselor, is there to help them address these issues. Dylan meets Ashley because he knocks over her drink and ruins her blouse. They become friends at the mall where he has gone to purchase Cliff Notes, and she has gone to purchase a replacement blouse. In the course of conversation about Dylan's problems with grades, they accidentally break a plate glass window in a sporting goods store. By the end of their harrowing ordeal with mall security, they have become friends. Dylan finds out Ashley is adjusting to her father's recent death and a major relocation. Ashley realizes Dylan needs help with school and begins helping him with his test preparation. Dylan has to make a C on his first English test or he can't be on the soccer team. When Dylan makes a C+, he knows his spot on the soccer team is guaranteed. However, he also realizes that, with help and preparation, he can do better in school. Dylan decides to put his grades before sports for the coming year.

MARCI'S IN HOT SALSA (#63174)

Marci wants to feel special and stand out from the other kids in the family, so she enters a salsa contest. Octavio, her boyfriend, is her partner, but it is clear he cannot dance. Marci thinks practicing will help, so she and Octavio rehearse at a studio. At the studio, Marci sees Miguel, who is a fabulous dancer. When Octavio is out of the room, Marci learns that Miguel doesn't have a partner for the dance competition. At dinner that night, Marci tells the family that she can't win the contest with Octavio, but she doesn't want to hurt his feelings. The family stresses telling Octavio about her feelings because the longer she waits the more it will hurt him. At the next rehearsal, Marci dances with Miguel and dumps Octavio. Although Marci and Miguel win the contest, she doesn't feel happy. She apologizes to Octavio for not being honest with him in the beginning. He accepts her apology and they agree to continue dating.

[Educational Theme: It is best to be honest with people from the beginning, even when you have bad news. Avoiding the truth does not save anyone's feelings in the long run.]

THE USERS (#63114)

It's time for midterms and Chris and Jamal haven't been studying. Before their radio show they meet Jasper, the new radio technician and a straight-A student. They realize that Jasper could help them study for their tests. In return, Chris and Jamal agree to let him hang out in the studio. Jasper turns out to be totally obnoxious, constantly interrupting the "Chris and Jamal" show, but the boys refrain from telling him to stop because they don't want to lose their tutor. Before long, Jasper thinks they are good friends and he's a part of their show. Later, Ms. Noble tells Chris and Jamal she has recommended them for internships with the famous New York Disk Jockey, "JoJo". In order to keep Jasper from ruining their chances, Chris and Jamal send him on a fake errand to get him out of the studio. However, Jasper comes back during the audition, and realizes that his new "friends" have tricked him. He tells Chris and Jamal he is very hurt and disappointed. Chris and Jamal realize that they were simply using Jasper and weren't being very good friends to him. They later apologize to Jasper for their behavior and make an arrangement with "JoJo" to get Jasper an internship too.

HAVE NO FEAR (#63216)

Silk has been offered a full scholarship to Temple University. He is really excited about going there until two of the players come to play and school him on the court. After talking to them, Silk finds out how much work college level basketball is going to take and is afraid of failure. At practice, Silk tells Coach that he has discussed college with his dad and they decided Atlantic was a better school for him. Coach is confused about Silk's change of heart. The next day, Eugene runs into Silk's dad and finds out that Silk never talked to him about Atlantic. Silk says he lied because after the game he realized that it would be easier for him to stand out at a smaller school. The boys tell Silk that he is selling himself short, but Silk is willing to take that risk. Coach talks to Silk about his college decision. He explains that you shouldn't be afraid to try. Later, Silk runs into a high school freshman at the gym. The freshman is worried about trying out for varsity because he thinks the team is much better than he is. Silk gives the freshman Coach's advice and realizes he should take that advice as well. When asked about college, Silk tells the freshman he is going to go to Temple.

MEET MR. HISTORY (#63122)

Chris and Jamal have to interview someone who witnessed a prominent moment in history, but they cannot seem to find anyone. Under pressure of the due date, Chris and Jamal make up a character, Jamal's Great Uncle Jesse, and all of the events he has seen. They get an A on the paper. Ms. Noble was so impressed by Jamal's Great Uncle Jesse that she recommends that he be interviewed on a local television program by one of her friends. The boys try to make excuses for why Uncle Jesse cannot attend, but Ms. Noble will not take no for an answer. So, the boys get El Train to dress up and pretend to be Uncle Jesse. Jamal, Chris and 'Uncle Jesse' are on the show the next day. El Train messes up a few things, but they get through the show. Afterwards, Ms. Noble comes to meet Uncle Jesse and pulls off El Train's beard. Ms. Noble is very upset with the boys for lying to her and to all of New York City. She demands that they go back to apologize to the television host. When the boys go back to apologize, they get put on the air. The host reveals them as frauds and asks if they have ever lied before. The boys tell on each other and bicker on camera. They did get a chance to apologize, but they were also humiliated on camera. They learn their lesson about trying to deceive others.

THE RIGHT QUESTION (#105/ #63954)

Dylan and Ashley decide to start an online dating service for the school. They create a questionnaire to match couples, and plan to charge the students for each match. When they launch the site, everyone responds. At first it is going well, but then people complain about the questions on the survey. Naomi doesn't want to fill in her weight, and another kid says Dylan is discriminating based on height. At Dylan's house, Jermaine starts to fill out the survey, but gets upset about the race question. There is no box for bi-racial, so he feels left out. As a result, a discussion among Jermaine, Ashley, and Dylan escalates into a huge argument. Dylan blows up at Ashley who says that the GPA question is important. Dylan thinks she should find some smart, rich guy. Later, Dylan talks to Mr. Pena about the problem. He realizes that they have focused on the wrong things in trying to create matches. Dylan apologizes to Jermaine and Ashley and tells them about his new survey. There is only one simple question to finding the right match: what matters most to you in a relationship? They re-launch the site and everyone responds positively. They match the responses by assigning each respondent a number, and on match day the anonymous selections turn out to be a great success.

THE RACE CAR (#63167)

Cray wins a convertible BMW in a contest. Neal and Ben find the car parked behind the Warehouse and get in just to feel it with Neal in the driver's seat, and Ben is in the passenger seat. A police officer approaches and asks Neal for the registration. He doesn't have it, so the officer arrests him saying that he fits a profile of gangsters in the area. He takes Ben in also. While in jail, Ben is allowed to make one phone call, but Neal is not. When Neal speaks up about his rights, the police threaten to keep him in jail longer. Later, Cray and Jane call the police to report the car missing. When they go down to the police station, they find out that the police are holding Neal and Ben. The police let Ben go, but hold Neal until they have thoroughly checked his record. When Cray, Jane, and Ben go home to tell Karen and Dave what has happened, the parents immediately go down to the jail to get Neal released. When they read the report against Neal, they realize that he was arrested before the car was reported stolen. They confront the officer about his behavior and he apologizes to Neal, saying he was only doing his job. Neal tells him that he should not have assumed anything based on a racial profile and that he plans on pressing charges for discrimination.

[Educational Theme: Racial profiling is unjust, unfair, and violates a basic human right to be treated respectfully as an individual. The only way to stop it is to take action against it by recognizing and reporting racial profiling whenever it occurs.]

KICKIN' IT (#63113)

After scoring a win for the soccer team, Al moves up to a starting position. The Coach, who is also his History teacher, gives Al permission to miss class and turn in his homework late. Dawn gets upset and tells Al that he is getting special treatment. When Al asks the coach about it, he is told that athletes deserve a break since they are doing so much for the school. Al happily accepts the coach's explanation. When the coach assigns an oral report, Al doesn't even bother doing it because he knows the coach will still give him an A. Unfortunately, Ms. Noble substitutes the day of the reports and gives Al an F for not being prepared. Al argues that it's hard to be an athlete and still find the time to study, but Ms. Noble tells him that is no excuse — everyone has other things that take up their time, but they manage to get their schoolwork done. Al realizes that Ms. Noble is right and that it's not a good idea to neglect school. Later, when the coach says he'll take care of Al's "F," Al tells him that he got what he deserved and getting special treatment isn't right. He tells the coach that he may only play soccer for a couple of years but he'll need his education for the rest of his life.

Chris finds out that one of his favorite groups, the Smashing Skulls, is looking for a new guitarist. Chris goes to watch the auditions, but ends up auditioning. The band hires Chris as their new guitarist. When Chris tells Jamal, Al and El Train, they are upset because they need Chris in their band. Chris says that he can do both. Later that afternoon, Chris is late for Jazz Posse practice because the Smashing Skulls practice ran late. The boys give Chris an ultimatum: either he plays with them or Smashing Skulls. Chris chooses the Smashing Skulls because it has been a life long dream to play with a professional band. For Smashing Skulls, Chris has to change his name and look. He also has to be at the club for a jam session during the fundraiser. Dawn comes to the club to talk to Chris after his practice. She says Chris is giving up a lot just to be in this band. Chris thinks the band is the most important thing right now. At the diner, Chris brings tickets to his first show. The boys feel like Chris is rubbing his success in their faces, and refuse to go. Cassidy decides to go to the show. At the concert, Chris learns that the old guitarist has rejoined the band. Cassidy sees the whole thing, but doesn't let Chris see her. The next day at school, Chris lies to his friends about the concert. Cassidy confronts him and tries to convince Chris to go back to the Jazz Posse, but Chris refuses. At the fundraiser, Chris shows up and asks to play with The Posse. He apologizes and says that he should have put his friends and The Jazz Posse first. They accept, and all play for the fundraiser.

Naomi's parents are out of town, so she is throwing a huge party. At the party, Jermaine and Dylan orient Ashley to the layout of the social cliques -- there are the "thugs," "jocks," and "others." While Ashley and Dylan are dancing, one of the 'thugs' bumps into Ashley. He and Dylan exchange words, but he keeps going. On his way back, the guy bumps into Ashley again, seemingly on purpose. Dylan comes to Ashley's defense and almost gets into a fight with the thug. Sometime later, a gun is fired and Dylan sees the same thug with the gun. Jermaine and Ashley are worried that someone is out there with a gun, but Dylan doesn't say anything. The next day, Dylan's parents find out about the shooting and tell Dylan the same gun was used to shoot a kid the next morning. Dylan tells Ashley and Jermaine he saw the guy, but doesn't say who it was. Dylan later runs into the guy, who indirectly threatens him. The police are interviewing every student who was at the party. Ashley pressures Dylan by calling him a coward, saying he is afraid to do the right thing and reveal what he knows. While Dylan is waiting to talk to the police, he talks with the "thug". Dylan tells him he could have killed someone, and the thug says it was an accident. Because of this conversation, the guy turns himself in. Mr. Pena is happy the problem is resolved before more serious problems developed, and tells Dylan that he should have said something earlier.

The kids warn him there might be problems when he finds out about his biological family, but Cray is determined to know his roots. Neal's searching results in locating Cray's grandfather, who agrees to meet Cray at the Warehouse. Cray asks Neal to come with him because he is scared of rejection. At the Warehouse, Cray meets Harold Jenkins, his grandfather, who just happens to be African-American. Cray is shocked and runs away. Later, Neal goes to talk with Cray about the meeting. Cray says he ran away because he didn't know he was African-American. When Karen and Dave come back from their trip, the kids tell them about Cray's meeting. They are disappointed that he ran away from his grandfather, and remind him that this may be the last link to his biological family. Cray agrees, and invites his grandfather over for dinner with everyone. Cray's grandfather tells Cray about his parents, and says he was put up for adoption when they died. Cray also learns the specifics of his racial mixture. The family shares a wonderful meal together and Cray's grandfather expresses his joy at seeing his multi-racial grandson being raised in such a racially diverse and loving family group.

MO MONEY, MO PROBLEMS (#63119)

El Train comes up with an invention -- a glow in the dark basketball to use while playing at night. Al loves the idea and asks everyone to go into business. They immediately film a commercial for their new product, the Glosketball. The orders start coming in and the boys are hard at work, except for Al. El Train, Chris and Jamal are working the assembly line, while Al is out making business cards with only his name on them. The boys get into an argument because Al is not doing his share of the work. Chris and Jamal leave the business to create their own, cheaper ball called the Glotrotter. One day, Al leaves El Train to do all of the work and the machines begin to malfunction. El-Train is overwhelmed, can't get Al to help, and decides to quit their business. Al begins to see the light. After dealing with all the problems he has ignored, he tells El Train that he thought he had to act like the big boss in order to make the big bucks. He asks El Train to try out the business again.

THAT 60'S SHOW (#63213)

School uniforms are instituted at Deering High because the school board believes more discipline is created when kids are dressed alike. The kids hate the idea and complain to no avail. A respected teacher points out that protests can create social change, and encourages the kids to organize protests if the issue of uniforms is important to them. They do, and the school board concedes. However, the teacher was fired by the school board because he inspired protest. The kids organize new protests, including a petition to reinstate the teacher. The school board doesn't budge, so the basketball team stages a sit-in at a televised game. Even though the coach implores them to play, Julie and Silk continue the protest. In the meantime, Mary Beth and Kristy find a letter from the school board that shows Mr. McHenry was fired because of age discrimination. They publicly expose the school board and find that by standing up for their principles, they can create change.

PRESUMED INNOCENT (#63115)

Jamal begins to have problems with Louis, a Manny High student who has a shaved head and tattoos. He tells the gang that Louis is a skinhead and a racist. During a confrontation in class, Louis calls Jamal a "jerk." Later, when "jerk" is spray painted on his locker, Jamal accuses Louis and the two begin to fight. Ms. Noble breaks it up and explains that one of the great things about America is that everyone is presumed innocent until proven guilty. She suggests that they hold a mock trial in Law class. Chris represents Jamal. Dawn and Cassidy represent Louis, and argue that it's unfair to accuse him just because of the way he looks. Dawn points out that Jamal just assumes Louis is a skinhead because his head is shaved and he has tattoos, but that Jamal doesn't have any proof. Jamal then produces pictures of Louis at a bus stop with a large group of "skinheads." When asked to explain, Louis says that they are all his friends and they all have cancer, just like him. Noble dismisses the case and Jamal acknowledges that he stereotyped Louis. Jamal feels very bad because he is so often a victim of stereotypes himself. Later, Chris and Jamal visit Louis in the hospital. They offer him an apology and ask if they can be friends with him.

At first Bob does not want to hire her because of her history as a juvenile delinquent, but Patrick sticks up for her. Patrick is a trusted friend of Bob's and convinces him to give Jane the job. Jane is surprised that someone she has never met would stick up for her. As they are getting to know one another, Jane finds out that Patrick is a rookie cop. She is surprised, but goes on a date with him and has a good time. After the date, the family teases Jane about dating a cop, and she decides not to go out with him because they just don't belong together. The next day, Patrick brings Jane flowers in uniform. The other cops with Patrick recognize Jane and make fun of Patrick for dating her. Jane is upset and storms out of the Warehouse because she thinks cops are all alike. Patrick follows her to see what is wrong, but Jane doesn't want to see him anymore. At work, Patrick comes to talk to Jane again, but she is still not receptive. He "arrests" her for assaulting an officer and takes her home. There they talk about why she is dumping him. Jane explains that she doesn't belong with "someone like him." Chris and Jamal tease Al for letting Dawn "whip" him around with her orders. When Dawn fights off subway bullies who are harassing them, Al begins to feel like a wimp who is insecure about his masculinity. Cassidy publishes a story about the subway incident in the school paper. Al decides to change his image and become a tough guy, even going so far as to fight the toughest guy in school. Al then confronts Dawn about the subway incident and accuses her of not being a "real girl" since she is strong and stands up for herself. Dawn is furious at Al and changes her image, too. She becomes the stereotypical girl, worrying about her appearance, spending all of her time shopping, and acting completely helpless. Now Al has to carry her books, open doors for her, and ask her to the school dance. Al doesn't like the new, high-maintenance Dawn, and it looks like they are going to break up. In an effort to help their friends, the rest of the gang tries some reverse psychology. They tell Al that what he really needs is a "bimbo" and they tell Dawn that she should find a weak man. Unsatisfied with their friends' suggestions, Dawn and Al talk. Al tells Dawn he doesn't like her excessive need for control. Dawn agrees to be less bossy.

LIFE 101 (#63217)

Christy and Mary Beth are waiting to see if they got into UCLA. Nick comes back into town and sparks up the romance again with Mary Beth. He has also applied to UCLA, so they might be able to be together next year. He left Duke because they didn't have a spot for him on the basketball team. Mary Beth and Christy get acceptance letters from UCLA. Nick does not, so he decides to attend the University of Indiana. Mary Beth is worried about saying goodbye to Nick again. That night, Nick takes Mary Beth to their old spot and asks her to stay with him in Indiana. She is shocked at first, but then considers it because then they could be together. Mary Beth talks to Christy, who suggests she reconsider. If Nick really cared about Mary Beth he wouldn't get in her way and ask her to throw away her dreams. Nick tells her that he just got an offer to be on the team at Duke, so he is going to return to North Carolina. He wants her to come with him, but Mary Beth refuses. She understands now that Nick was only looking out for himself. At the airport, Mary Beth catches Christy on her way to visit UCLA. She apologizes to Christy for not listening to her and they both get on the airplane. Mary Beth is going to do what is best for her.

SHOCK TREATMENT (#63702)

When a local shock jock fails to show up for a special broadcast from Manny High, Chris and Jamal are asked to fill in. They spend the whole show making fun of their teachers at Manny High. The show's producer loves their act and invites them to do more shows. Since Chris and Jamal are worried about making their teachers angry, they decide to insult Dawn and Cassidy instead. The girls are furious with Chris and Jamal, but the listeners love them and the station offers the boys their own show as long as they continue slamming people. Thrilled with their new opportunity, Chris and Jamal begin bagging on Al and El-Train. Furious with Chris and Jamal, the rest of the gang get even by telling everyone embarrassing half-truths about the guys and saying they don't want to be friends with the new radio stars anymore. After a talk with Ms. Noble, Chris and Jamal realize that they sacrificed their friends' feelings for their own gain. They decide to quit the show and return to Manny High where they offer an apology on the school radio show.

Ashley's mom left a glass of wine out, so Ashley takes a sip and gives some to Dylan. Dylan doesn't normally drink, but takes a sip also. A sip turns into a glass, which turns into a bottle. While Dylan and Ashley are drinking, Jermaine is at Dylan's house waiting for him to come home. They have a tradition to see horror movies on opening night. Jermaine decides to wait for Dylan, but Mike thinks Dylan is off with Ashley. Meanwhile, Ashley and Dylan leave the house to get something to eat. They are really drunk and obnoxious in a restaurant. Hunter and Naomi are there and help them out of the restaurant. Mike drives up to find his brother drunk and throwing up. He takes Ashley and Dylan home. The next morning, Jermaine is angry with Dylan for standing him up. Dylan's father is also really upset that Dylan was drinking. Dylan says he won't end up an alcoholic like his father and storms out. He talks to Ashley from a pay phone. They share stories about their fathers and Dylan realizes he should talk to his dad again. When they talk again, his dad explains how alcoholism is a family disease and can take over without you realizing that you are dependent. He doesn't want that to happen to Dylan. Dylan apologizes and realizes he acted stupid when he drank. Since he does not want to become an alcoholic, he just will not drink anymore.

They all think their real excuse is unbelievable and agree to lie to Noble, but are unable to get their story straight before Noble asks them to explain individually. Dawn and Cassidy tell her that while on the subway they befriended a homeless woman and spent three hours giving her a beauty makeover. Al and El-Train tell her that they spent the time on the subway saving a homeless woman from Russian spies. Chris and Jamal admit that they left campus for the tickets and then explain that they helped a clown give birth on the subway. Noble is furious that they left school and that they all lied to her. As punishment, she gives them one month of detention, making them miss the concert. While they serve their detention, a policewoman comes to school to reveal that she was working undercover as the homeless woman on the subway. She confirms that the gang helped deliver a baby. Noble believes the policewoman but refuses to apologize for punishing them. She explains that she's responsible for students during school hours and they could have gotten her into a lot of trouble. When Cassidy suggests that racism is simply a thing of the past, Kadeem reminds them of the police officer whom earlier that day was looking for a robbery suspect but only questioned the Black people in their group. Kadeem tells the kids that if they educate themselves and spread the word they can combat racism. Jamal feels this is a wake-up call and begins studying his uncle's book. Before long, Jamal starts changing. He tells Cassidy and Dawn that they should feel guilty for others' racism and he starts organizing Survival, a black-only club. Even El-Train's warnings that Jamal is taking his black-pride too seriously and turning off his friends doesn't stop Jamal from telling Chris that he doesn't understand what Jamal is going through because he is white and that they shouldn't be friends anymore. When Ms. Noble expresses concern about Jamal's club, Jamal tells her she should "check her blackness." Ms. Noble explains that excluding people only undermines their struggle for equality and that finger-pointing only leads to more racism, anger, and violence. Despite Ms. Noble's refusal to let Survival meet on school grounds because it is not open to all, Jamal continues with his plans. In an effort to understand where Jamal is coming from, Chris goes to the first meeting, but Jamal tells him to leave. Then, as he opens the meeting, Jamal admits to everyone that he went about things the wrong way. Eric Snow -- Player And Injury

Snow broke his ankle during the conference finals. However, he persevered and continued to play during the finals. He had to focus and contribute when he could. His wife and son give him support when he finishes a winning or losing game.

Jerome Williams -- Player As Inside Stuff Correspondent

Williams was a correspondent at the finals in Philadelphia. He started his visit in historic Philadelphia, including the Liberty Bell, Independence and Philosophical Halls. Williams meets different members of the of Lakers and 76ers, as well as other participants in the game. Williams' next stop is Beijing China where he and other NBA players will visit.

Shaquille O'Neal -- Player And The Philadelphia Zoo

O'Neal visited the oldest zoo in the US. He likes the primates the most because of their strength and their need for space. He visited the koalas who are cute but do not like to be touched. O'Neal also looked at the anacondas. Tigers and Shaq are similar because they both like the cold.

HIGH SCHOOL CONFIDENTIAL (#63226)

Mary Beth and Christy are doing a video project for class with Julie's camera. They are asking everyone to talk about the most important thing they learned in high school. In telling the story, we visit previous episodes. Julie's most important lesson was stand up for what you believe in, remembering the sit-in she and the others staged. Michael learned how to manage his anger, which enabled him to be a better player. 'Never give up on your dreams' was Antonio's lesson. He also reflected on the hard and good times in his relationship with Christy. As they finish Antonio's interview, Silk comes running in for help because Eugene got his hand stuck in a tuba. While they try to free Eugene, he reflects on the mistake he has made and admits that he is not perfect. Silk remembers his own brush with violence and how guns don't solve problems. They continue to remember how Coach has helped them many times in the past. Coach comes along and frees Eugene from the tuba. The gang all agrees that having good friends who can help you get through good times and bad is an important part of growing up.

[Educational Theme: When you have good friends who really care about you, they help you through the hard times, and are there to share your joy when things go well.]

EL-BRAIN (#63711)

The science class is going to have an invention contest worth 50% of their grade. Afraid of getting a bad grade, no one will partner with El-Train. So El-Train works on his own and invents motorized in-line skates. After presenting the "motorblades" idea, El-Train becomes a finalist in the contest and when the whole class thinks that he's going to lose, El-Train vows to prove them wrong. Unfortunately, when he tries to show-off his skates, they explode in a flash of fire. Trying to help his disappointed friend, Jamal tells El-Train that he needs to be persistent and keep working. The gang doesn't have too much faith in El-Train, though, so Jamal and Al have El-Train's mom come to fix the skates. When El-Train catches them, his feelings are hurt and he realizes Jamal never believed he could do it. Frustrated and disappointed, El-Train quits the competition but Ms. Noble tells him that he has to believe in himself. She explains that El-Train's gift is that he thinks differently than others and if he quits he'll never know what he could accomplish. El-Train finishes his invention and is the runner-up in the contest. Now he knows that he has something to work towards next year.

WASHED UP (#110/ #63962)

Ashley decides to organize a car wash and pet wash to raise money for a pet shelter. She enlists Dylan and Jermaine to help her, but Dylan finds out he has a chance to compete in a skate-off happening at the same time. Ashley understands he needs to be in the competition so she tells him she can do it all by herself. She develops her organizational plan and tells people what to do, but then she interferes with everyone as they are trying to do their jobs. Chaos prevails and Jermaine and her mom tell her that she can't micro-manage. If she lets the people do their jobs, everything will be alright. As soon as Ashley delegates tasks and relaxes, the car wash starts to run smoothly. DAD STRIKES OUT (#63170)

The teachers' strike lasts longer than Dave expected, so he has to find another job in the meantime to hold them over. Karen and Dave are worried about finances, but do not want to worry the children. Karen says they will have to start cutting back. Cray, Sui, and Jane are in line at Corndog World one day, and they are embarrassed and surprised to find out that Dave is working there. They make fun of him. He explains to the kids that the strike has caused him to take on this job. Without Karen and Dave's knowledge, the kids decide to get extra jobs to help the family. One day, disaster strikes when the ceiling begins to leak. Cray, Neal, and Jane think they can fix it without their parent's knowing, so they send Cray up on the roof to find the problem. While on the roof, Cray causes a bigger hole by falling half way through the ceiling. Karen and Dave come in to find Cray's legs sticking through the ceiling. The kids tell Karen and Dave what is going on, and explain that they have collected money to pay the bills through part-time jobs. Later, Dave tells the family that the strike is over and he will be going back to teaching. The kids apologize for making fun of Dave working at Corndog World, and for taking on more than they could handle with the ceiling. Dave also apologizes for not asking for help earlier. Both Karen and Dave are happy and proud that the kids helped.

[Educational Theme: Do not be too proud to ask for help when your problems get too big for you to handle alone. Family members will always stick together, and help each other out.]

WHO DA MAN? (#63704)

Chris and Jamal tease Al for letting Dawn "whip" him around with her orders. When Dawn fights off subway bullies who are harassing them, Al begins to feel like a wimp who is insecure about his masculinity. Cassidy publishes a story about the subway incident in the school paper. Al decides to change his image and become a tough guy, even going so far as to fight the toughest guy in school. Al then confronts Dawn about the subway incident and accuses her of not being a "real girl" since she is strong and stands up for herself. Dawn is furious at Al and changes her image, too. She becomes the stereotypical girl, worrying about her appearance, spending all of her time shopping, and acting completely helpless. Now Al has to carry her books, open doors for her, and ask her to the school dance. Al doesn't like the new, high-maintenance Dawn, and it looks like they are going to break up. In an effort to help their friends, the rest of the gang tries some reverse psychology. They tell Al that what he really needs is a "bimbo" and they tell Dawn that she should find a weak man. Unsatisfied with their friends' suggestions, Dawn and Al talk. Al tells Dawn he doesn't like her excessive need for control. Dawn agrees to be less bossy.

GRADUATION ON THREE (#63224)

The end of the year is fast approaching and graduation is right around the corner. The basketball team honors Julie by retiring her jersey. Christy is supposed to be planning a graduation party, as well as speaking as Class Valedictorian; however, Christy has not prepared for either one. The girls have a slumber party and prepare the food for the party. While they are working, they reminisce about the good times they have had in high school. Christy professes that she does not want to be Valedictorian or speak at graduation because she doesn't have much to say. Julie and Mary Beth try to convince her otherwise, but Christy won't budge. At the party, the gang gets together to do a toast, but Christy runs off crying. She doesn't understand how everyone can be so happy when everything is ending. Julie and Mary Beth talk to her and they all end up crying because nothing will ever be the same. At graduation, Christy ends up speaking. She thanks her friends for helping her realize that even though change is scary, she will always have her parents, friends, and Deering in her heart. Later, Coach says goodbye to everyone and wishes them well. In a teary goodbye, Julie closes the show with her last "go Deering."

At any party, Jane asks if Karen and Dave will adopt her as well. Everyone is excited that Jane has a family. The next day, Jane asks Karen and Dave about their trip to Social Services, but they decided to take Karen to the doctor instead, and found out that Karen is pregnant. They are really excited to have a child of their own. With the baby, Jane is worried that they will not want to adopt her. So, Karen and Dave go to Social Services, but they cannot legally adopt Jane because her father must sign a release form. Overhearing how happy Karen and Dave are to have a baby, Jane decides not to be adopted anymore. She goes to find her father, hoping to pick up where they left off; her father is in jail. Jane's father tells her that he didn't want her to know that he was in jail. He is her father. While Jane is talking to her father, the rest of the family is worried about her. They feel like they are treating her like a second class child and putting too much emphasis on the baby. When Jane tells Karen and Dave to apologize to Jane and tell her they really want to adopt her. Jane tells them that because she didn't think the Blakes really wanted her. However, her father signed the release form to be with parents that would always be there for her. Jane is happy and wants to go through with it.

PEARL HARBOR: LEGACY OF AN ATTACK

Sixty years after fire and death rained from the skies as Japanese warplanes attacked American forces, National Geographic takes a contemporary look at the surprise raid that signaled America's entry into World War II. Famed underwater explorer Robert Ballard (discoverer of Titanic) combs the waters off Pearl Harbor for the remains of a secret Japanese midget submarine that could have changed history. Pearl Harbor survivors share their painful and poignant stories and renowned historian Stephen Ambrose adds powerful historical perspective. National Geographic and the National Park Service also capture the first-ever images from inside the sunken battleship U.S.S. Arizona and examine the ecological risk presented by the sunken ship and the half a million gallons of oil that may still be contained inside it.

NBC NETWORK NON-BROADCAST EFFORTS

APRIL – JUNE 2001

THE MORE YOU KNOW WEBSITE

The More You Know's website (www.nbc.com/tmyk) features actual video clips from the award-winning public service announcements, referral information for the organizations referenced in the PSAs, a general campaign overview, and educational materials produced in connection with NBC programming. The site also includes a "feature of the month" page which addresses select TMYK topics, a list of the campaign's most recent accolades, and actionable video of the latest TMYK events.

TNBC WEBSITE

To supplement and enhance the educational value of the network's "Teen NBC" programs, NBC has a Web site (www.tnbconline.com) specifically dedicated to teens. This site was recently re-launched with a new design. The goals of this site are first, to create a platform for the teen community where opportunities for self-expressions become the core of the interactive experience; second to build these communities wherever possible around the themes and ideas generated within the TNBC shows themselves; and third, to provide online resources of information and guidance around the issues that most effect teens' lives.

Features of the Web site include information on the upcoming episodes of each of the TNBC shows, as well as information about the shows and their cast members. Through partnerships, we will provide a free TNBC email service to teens to foster a sense of community and communication. Using functionality from outside interactive partners, there is a prominent link to NBC.com, which include polls, message boards and features on subjects such as relationships, family, advice columns, dating, drugs and alcohol, entertainment and other teen sites on the Web. There are chat rooms for teens, hosted by Talk City, and there are links to Web page building and hosting services.

TNBC EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES
AS OF SEPTEMBER 23, 2000

IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE CHILDREN'S TELEVISION REGULATIONS THAT BECAME EFFECTIVE JANUARY 2, 1997, NBC'S TNBC PROGRAMS FEATURE AN ON-AIR ICON INDICATING EACH PROGRAM AS "EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL" FOR CHILDREN. THIS ICON IS DISPLAYED AT THE BEGINNING OF EACH BROADCAST. ALSO, IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE NEW REGULATIONS, THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENT WHICH INCLUDES "EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL OBJECTIVES OF TNBC" MUST BE PLACED IN YOUR PUBLIC FILE.

"EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL OBJECTIVES OF TNBC"

EACH OF THE PROGRAMS LISTED BELOW WHICH MAKE UP NBC'S TNBC (TEEN NBC) PROGRAMMING BLOCK IS SPECIFICALLY DESIGNED TO SERVE THE EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL NEEDS OF TEENAGERS, SPECIFICALLY, 13-16 YEAR OLDS. THE EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVE OF EACH OF THESE PROGRAMS IS TO DEMONSTRATE HOW THE KNOWLEDGE OF ONE OR MORE CHARACTERS IN THE STORY MOVES FROM ONE LEVEL TO A MORE INFORMED OR HIGHER LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE BY THE END OF EACH EPISODE. THIS CHANGE IN KNOWLEDGE CONVEYS AN EDUCATIONAL MESSAGE TO THE AUDIENCE WHICH MAY FALL INTO ONE OR MORE CATEGORIES--INTELLECTUAL-COGNITIVE AND/OR SOCIO-EMOTIONAL. THE MESSAGE WILL ALWAYS BE INTEGRAL TO THE PLOT. CONTENT WHICH DEVELOPS THE MESSAGE WILL BE PRESENT THROUGHOUT THE SCRIPT.

THE EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES ARE ACHIEVED BY OFFERING THE AUDIENCE ENGAGING AND RELATABLE CHARACTERS WHO SHARE A COMMON PERSPECTIVE. THE STORYLINES ARE DRAWN FROM SPECIFIC CHALLENGES TEEN FACE TODAY DRINKING AND DRIVING, LEARNING DISABILITIES, EATING DISORDERS, GAMBLING, SMOKING, SUBSTANCE ABUSE, RACIAL AND ETHNIC INTOLERANCE AND THE RIGHT AND RESPONSIBILITY TO VOTE. PERENNIAL THEMES, SUCH AS FRIENDSHIP, DEFINING ONE'S SELF, DEVELOPING SOCIAL SKILLS, MANAGING ONE'S LIFE AND BEING COMPETENT ARE ALSO COVERED BECAUSE THEY ARE CENTRAL TO ADOLESCENCE. ALL THE THEMES ARE INTEGRATED INTO THE SERIES IN VARYING DEGREES AND WITH DIFFERENT LEVELS OF EMPHASIS.

TO ENSURE THAT THE CONTENT OF EACH SHOW IS DEVELOPMENTALLY APPROPRIATE FOR THE TARGET TEEN AUDIENCE, THE TNBC TEAM OF PRODUCERS AND WRITERS WORKS CLOSELY WITH EDUCATIONAL CONSULTANTS. THESE EXPERTS IDENTIFY IMPORTANT THEMES AND DILEMMAS OF ADOLESCENCE THAT CAN FORM THE BASIS OF THE MESSAGES. THEY HELP INTEGRATE THE EDUCATIONAL THEME OF EACH SHOW INTO THE ACTION, SO THAT THE STORY NARRATIVE AND THE EDUCATION MESSAGE ARE INTERDEPENDENT.

"CITY GUYS" ORIGINATES AT A DENSELY POPULATED, MULTI-ETHNIC, PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOL IN THE HEART OF MANHATTAN. THROUGH ITS CHARACTERS, THE SHOW DEMONSTRATES THAT WHAT WE SEE DOESN'T BEGIN TO TELL THE STORY ABOUT WHO PEOPLE REALLY ARE AND WHAT LIFE IS REALLY LIKE. TWO YOUNG MEN, WHO SEEM TO BE OPPOSITES IN ALL THE OBVIOUS WAYS--RACE, ECONOMIC BACKGROUND, CULTURE, CLOTHES AND MUSIC--ARE THROWN INTO A FRIENDSHIP AND WORKING RELATIONSHIP BY THEIR WISE AND ACERBIC PRINCIPAL. THE BOYS ACTUALLY HAVE A LOT IN COMMON--THEY ARE BOTH BRIGHT, THEY WANT TO BE MORE THAN THE NEGATIVE IMAGES THEY SOMETIMES PROJECT, AND THEY HAVE NEVER BEEN MOTIVATED TO REALLY THINK, REFLECT, OR ACT BEYOND THE SUPERFICIAL. AS THEY DEAL WITH THE PRESSURES OF BIG CITY LIFE, THEY LEARN THAT GETTING BEYOND THE SUPERFICIAL AND SERIOUSLY DEALING WITH A DEEPER REALITY IS THE CRITICAL PATH TO ATTAINING SUCCESS.

"HANG TIME" FOLLOWS THE DEERING TORNADOES, A VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM IN AN INDIANA HIGH SCHOOL THAT INCLUDES ONLY ONE FEMALE PLAYER. THE SERIES FOLLOWS THE STARTING LINE-UP THROUGH ITS BASKETBALL SEASONS AND EXPLORES BOTH PERSONAL THEMES OF ADOLESCENT LIFE, AS WELL AS THE SOCIAL THEMES WHICH RELATE TO SPORTSMANSHIP, FAIR PLAY, JEALOUSY, TEAMWORK, COOPERATION AND COMPETITION. AS THE TEAM PROGRESSES THROUGH EACH SEASON, THE AUDIENCE WILL SEE THEM DEVELOP SKILLS IN SEVERAL AREAS. THESE INCLUDE ESTABLISHING PRIORITIES, MANAGING CONFLICT, DEVELOPING SELF-CONFIDENCE, RESPECTING DIFFERENCES, AND REDUCING BIAS IN BEHAVIOR TOWARDS OTHERS. THERE IS AN EMPHASIS ON INTERPERSONAL COMPETENCE AND TEAMWORK WHICH DEMONSTRATES TO THE AUDIENCE WAYS TO DEVELOP POSITIVE SELF-CONCEPTS YET ALSO MAKE AND MAINTAIN EFFECTIVE SOCIAL RELATIONSHIPS.

"ONE WORLD" FOCUSES ON A FAMILY OF SIX ADOPTED AND FOSTER CHILDREN WHO LIVE WITH DAVE AND KAREN BLAKE, A HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL COACH AND HIS WIFE. EACH OF THE BLAKE KIDS HAS HAD A ROUGH LIFE; GETTING INTO TROUBLE EITHER AT SCHOOL, OR WITH THE LAW, OR GETTING BOUNCED AROUND TO DIFFERENT FOSTER FAMILIES. LIFE WITH THE BLAKES IS THEIR CHANCE AT A STABLE FUTURE BUT EACH CHILD'S BACKGROUND INFLUENCES THEIR PERSPECTIVE ON HOW TO HANDLE FAMILY AND LIFE CHALLENGES. . IN ADDITION TO LEARNING HOW TO MANAGE FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS, THE KIDS DEAL WITH OTHER SOCIAL AND COGNITIVE ISSUES, FROM PROVIDING SERVICE TO HELP OTHERS, TO LIFE PLANNING AND EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT. THERE IS AN EMPHASIS ON UNDERSTANDING MULTIPLE PERSPECTIVES ON ANY PROBLEM AND GIVING EVERY PERSON A FAIR CHANCE TO PROVE THEIR WORTH TO OTHERS.

"JUST DEAL" FOCUSES ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF THREE TEENS WHO ARE UNIQUELY DIFFERENT FROM ONE ANOTHER YET FORGE DEEP BONDS OF FRIENDSHIP THROUGH THEIR SHARED INTERESTS AND PROBLEMS. AS THESE THREE NAVIGATE THEIR WAY THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL, THEY WILL DEAL WITH ALL THE IMPORTANT ISSUES OF ADOLESCENCE, MODELING THEIR PROBLEM-SOLVING AND DECISION-MAKING FOR THE TEEN AUDIENCE. THE OVERARCHING GOAL OF THIS SERIES IS TO TAKE THE VIEWER FROM ONE LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE TO A MORE INFORMED OR HIGHER LEVEL OF KNOWLEDGE WITHIN EACH EPISODE. THIS IS ACHIEVED THROUGH THE STORYLINES, WHERE ONE OR MORE OF THE THREE MAIN CHARACTERS WILL DEMONSTRATE ACTIVE PROBLEM-SOLVING AND DECISION-MAKING RELATED TO A SPECIFIC TOPIC. EACH WEEK, EMBEDDED IN AN EVOLVING, CONTINUOUS PROCESS OF FRIENDSHIP AND VALUES CLARIFICATION, A CHARACTER WILL DEAL WITH A SPECIFIC CHALLENGE. TOPICS WILL INCLUDE, FOR EXAMPLE, RACIAL IDENTITY, UNDERSTANDING AND ACCEPTING LOSS, FACING FAILURE, EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION, CONFLICT MANAGEMENT PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY, SERVICE TO OTHERS, TRUST AND BETRAYAL, ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT, LIFE BALANCE, AND TOLERANCE.

ALSO INCLUDED IN THE TNBC LINEUP IS "NBA INSIDE STUFF," A HALF-HOUR NEWS MAGAZINE PROGRAM DIRECTED AT TEENS BETWEEN THE AGES OF 13-16. THE PROGRAM FEATURES THE PRO-SOCIAL OFF-COURT ACTIVITIES OF MALE AND FEMALE BASKETBALL PLAYERS, COACHES, TEAM PERSONNEL AND TEENAGE ATHLETES. OTHER FEATURES HIGHLIGHT ATHLETIC SKILLS, ATTITUDE AND KNOWLEDGE NEEDED FOR SUCCESSFUL ALTHLETIC COMPETITION AND PARTICIPATION.

PROGRAM SEGMENTS ARE BASED ON A CURRICULUM INSPIRED BY THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION'S GOALS 2000, WITH PARTICULAR FOCUS ON MESSAGES ENCOURAGING THE FOLLOWING VALUES: SCHOOL COMPLETION, COMMUNITY SERVICE, COOPERATION, TOLERANCE OF DIFFERENCES, HEALTHFUL PRACTICES AND ATHLETICS, PEACEFUL CONFLICT RESOLUTION AND GLOBAL AWARENESS. THE PROGRAM'S HOST CONVEYS THESE EDUCATIONAL AND INFORMATIONAL MESSAGES PRIMARILY THROUGH REAL LIFE EXAMPLES, INTERVIEWS AND COMMENTARY. WEEKLY FEATURES ON PLAYERS AND OTHER INDIVIDUALS ASSOCIATED WITH BASKETBALL HELP THE AUDIENCE SEE HOW THESE INDIVIDUALS WERE ABLE TO OVERCOME VARIOUS OBSTACLES IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE THEIR GOALS.

2000-2001 First Run Broadcast Show Descriptions

Condor Hausi (2187)

March 31-April 1, 2001

High in the Andes Mountains of Ecuador, Jack visits a breeding project focused on saving the endangered condor, the largest flying bird in the world. With its unique location in the middle of prime condor habitat, "Condor Hausi" hopes to reproduce the massive bird in captivity. In Otavalo, Jack and Kathaleen experience an open market where villagers have bought and sold domestic animals for centuries.

Costa Rica: Snakes and Sloths (2178)

April 7-8, 2001

In Costa Rica, Jack encounters reptiles including an Eye Lash Viper, a huge Python and the deadly Bushmaster at the World of Snakes. On the Caribbean coast, Jack meets an American couple who has established the Sloth Rehabilitation Center.

Diving into Dominica (2177)

April 14-15, 2001

The watery world of Dominica, one of the Caribbean's most pristine islands, provides Jack and his daughter Kathaleen with an unforgettable island adventure. From an ocean encounter with Sperm whales to a lazy paddle up the Layou River, father and daughter plunge right into the Nature Island. Also, Kathaleen makes her first open water dive.

Belugas and Bears (2186)

April 21-22, 2001

Jack and his daughter Kathaleen travel to northern Canada for encounters with Beluga whales and Polar bears. At Churchill, the Hanna's find Hudson Bay much to their liking, but nothing tops the small town's hottest summer pastime: face-to-face viewing of friendly belugas. Polar Bears, recently off the winter ice flows are also around, but Jack and Kathaleen discover they are much harder to spot.

Galapagos Giants (2188)

April 28-29, 2001

In the Galapagos Islands where Charles Darwin gathered thoughts on his theory of evolution, Jack and Kathaleen search for giant tortoise. The adventure takes them from the arid Isabela Island to the lush highlands of Santa Cruz. The Hanna's also stop by the Charles Darwin Research Center to see the famed tortoise, Lonesome George.

Oasis in the Desert (2189)

May 5-6, 2001

Jack and Kathaleen journey to the Middle East to experience the animals and culture of Israel. In the Judean Desert, Jack encounters a large herd of Ibex at the beautiful Oasis En Gedi. Kathaleen hikes to the top of Masada, then floats in the Dead Sea. Later, Jack and Kathaleen square off in a father and daughter mud fight. At a desert kibbutz, Jack profiles a woman whose love of animals inspired her to start a small zoo for children.
